IRELAND PRIVY COUNCIL ACTS.

It Revokes Proclamations Issued Under the Coercion Law.

Brigandage Increasing in Italy—Other News by Cable.

(From Associated Press.)

DUBLIN, Sept. 14.—A meeting of the Irish Privy Council was held to-day in Dublin Castle. Mr. John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland, was present.

After some discussion the Council decided to revoke all the proclamations hitherto made under the provisions of the Coercion act.

BRIGANDAGE IN ITALY.

Immunity from punishment has made the Thieves Much Bolder.

(From Associated Press.)

ROME, Sept. 14.—The Fanfara, in an article on the operations of the brigands, says to-day that immunity from punishment for their recent crimes and the enormous booty they have secured has stimulated the passion for brigandage throughout Italy.Loysoy, Sept. 14.—The correspondent of the Times at Rome sends to-day paper an article on brigandage in Italy, in which he says it is an undeniable fact that brigandage is on the increase, not only in Sicily, but upon the mainland.

Some of the brigands pose as social reformers. One of these thieves has written a letter to Calabria, a city of Sicily, to a paper published in Rome, inclosing five francs, which he requests the paper to give to some worthy charity. This brigand says he never sees the poor.

Russian Movements and Intentions in the Pamir Country.

(From Associated Press.)

LONDON, Sept. 14.—The Standard's Berlin correspondent, referring to the rumor that the Amir of Afghanistan is preparing to defend his honor against the Russians who have invaded his territory, says:

"Col. Yanoff, the Russian commander, demands reinforcements on account of the Amir's decision. As the so-called scientific expeditions excite distrust the Russians will place them under the command of foreigners. Baron Vrinski, the Governor of Turkestan, has sent a Spanish name Ximenes to the Pamirs with orders to explore British territory and establish an observatory. How many men will be required to defend this station is as yet a secret."

Depositors Regaining Confidence in the Birkbeck Bank.

(From Associated Press.)

LONDON, Sept. 14.—The Birkbeck Bank, upon which there has been a run for the past two days, opened this morning at the usual hour and business was continued. A large crowd was in waiting, eager to draw out deposits. A much better feeling prevails, however, and the excitement of the past two days has greatly lessened. Many depositors, who at the beginning of the run thought they could not get out in getting their money, appeared this morning and placed their funds in charge of the bank again.
